Adhesion Wealth Advisor Solutions Honored as one of Charlotte's 50 Fastest Growing Companies by Charlotte Business Journal

Adhesion will be recognized as a top local firm for three consecutive years

November 26, 2014 – Charlotte, NC – Adhesion Wealth Advisor Solutions (Adhesion), a personalized Unified Managed Account (UMA) platform for Registered Investment Advisors (RIAs) nationwide, is pleased to announce its nomination for the Charlotte Business Journal's 2014 Fast 50 Awards.

Every year the CBJ recognizes 50 local companies for outstanding growth, entrepreneurial excellence and leadership. For the third consecutive year, Adhesion has made the list. The nominees will be honored at the annual Fast 50 Awards dinner on December 4 in Charlotte.

"We are proud to be recognized again by our business peers in Charlotte," said Michael Stier, President and CEO of Adhesion Wealth. "We work with financial advisors all over the country to provide them with the technology and people that power their investment management solutions. We could not have this success without the fact that 100% of our operations are in-house and in the United States. 100% of our employees, even our IT, is housed right here in Charlotte. Our continual growth, and recognition by the Charlotte Business Journal, shows not only our commitment to our clients but also our commitment to our communities."
